MAM College launches plantation drive

KT NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, Aug 12: While spearheading its mission to serve humanity the Global Peace Organization in collaboration with NSS Volunteers of Govt MAM PG College Jammu today organised a plantation drive on the International Youth Day in the campus of the college.

The Principal MAM College Dr Ajeet Angral kicked off the drive by planting the inaugural sapling.

Speaking on occasion, Angral highlighted the role of youth for the protection & promotion of environment and said, "The deforestation is going to hit hard the very existence of life on this planet. A tree is like a mother in whose lap a child gets peace, love and care."

Sheikh Altaf Hussain, Chairman Global Peace Organization while highlighting the environmental statistics said that within few decades of industrial civilization, the man has destroyed 50 pc of the world's forest and if the present rate of deforestation goes unabated, the world is going to befit a catastrophe by the end of 21st century endangering the whole life on Earth."

He said that plants not only vital for oxygen, food and shelter but most of the medicines are also extracted from the plants. The ozone layer depletion causes severe respiratory and cardiovascular diseases besides throat inflammation, chest pain and congestion. He said that forests are world's air conditioning system and we are on the verge of switching it off. He urged the youth to promote plantation and make India cool, prosperous and green.

Those participated in the drive included Dr Muzamil Hussain, Programme Officer, Prof Shabila Wani, Programme Officer, Members of the Coordinating Committee, Prof Shiwani Walia, Prof Sanjay Manhas, Joginder Kumar Sharma, Shaista Katoch, Vice Chairman, Sheikh Ayaz Hussain, General Secretary, Dr Ishrat Mir, Administrator, Suhail Bharti, Imran Akram Adv, Amjad Khan Adv, Gopal Thakur, Ali Haider Shah, Bashir Ahmed, Ayesha, Hanan and others.
